After breakfast, drive downstream along the Indus River on the Leh-Kargil Highway for a day excursion to Sham Valley. Begin your sightseeing with a visit to the Hall of Fame (a museum constructed by the Indian Army), followed by Gurudwara Pathar Sahib, nestled beautifully amidst the Himalayas.

Continue your journey to the Magnetic Hill, known for its gravity-defying phenomenon, and further to the Confluence of the Indus and Zaskar Rivers at Sangam — a spectacular sight.

While returning to Leh, visit the Spituk Monastery, built in the 15th century during the reign of Grags 'bum-lde, known for its fortress-like architecture. Later, return to Leh and enjoy the evening at leisure. Overnight stay at the hotel in Leh.

After an early breakfast, drive towards the breathtaking Pangong Lake via the Changla Pass (5,486 m), one of the highest motorable roads in the world. En route, pass through the beautiful Sakti Village and stop at the Changla Pass for quick photographs.

Continue to Tangtse Village, where you can enjoy a cup of tea and relax for a while. Proceed further through the scenic landscape of Changthang Plateau, passing small villages before reaching the stunning Pangong Lake, situated at an altitude of 14,000 ft (4,267 m).

The lake, famous for its mesmerizing blue hues, stretches over 133 km, with nearly half lying in China. Spend some peaceful moments amidst this natural beauty and capture unforgettable memories.

In the afternoon, drive back to Leh. The evening is free for leisure. Dinner and overnight stay at the hotel in Leh.
